

Tazewell-Mason Counties Special Education Association Professional Development Presentation

Please Distribute To Target Audience:

Special and General Education Teachers, Reading Specialists, Paraprofessionals

Stimulating the Senses: Multisensory Approach to Language Acquisition

Stacy Carroll, CLP, Director, Tutor Trainer, Tutor
Mary Heinemann, Supervisor, Tutor Trainer, Tutor
Dyslexia Awareness Network

Participants will identify characteristics of dyslexia, connect and utilize multisensory learning styles, and reveal the reality of dyslexia during a simulation. Discover how the multisensory approach, developed by Orton and Gillingham, can enhance learning and increase spoken and written language ability and retention. Hands on and interactive communication is encouraged.

Topics covered: Dyslexia - Specific Learning Disability, Multisensory Approach - Orton and Gillingham, Dyslexia Simulation.

Date: February 1, 2019
Registration: 7:30am
Presentation: 8:00am - 3:30pm
Location: Avanti's Dome, 3401 Griffin Ave, Pekin

Pre-registration is required for all participants

Please register by calling online at:
<http://www.tmcsea.org/in-service.html>

Lunch will be on your own

Registration Deadline: January 25, 2019

Tazewell-Mason Counties Special Education Association is an Illinois State Board of Education Approved Professional Development Provider and Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation Continuing Education Sponsor. 6 Professional Development hours and 6 Continuing Education Units will be issued for this inservice presentation.