

Structured Literacy as part of a Traditional ELA Module for Elementary Grades Marilyn Zecher

This workshop will offer teachers practical models for infusing current curricula with intervention strategies to boost student decoding, comprehension and achievement. Teachers will learn how to add essential components of Structured Literacy as listed in the Common Core State Standards and strategies for linking reading, vocabulary, and written language to a rich ELA curriculum. The workshop will feature a variety of hands-on learning strategies, make and take materials and references

LOCATION

Central Jr. High School
601 Taylor Street
East Peoria, IL

DATE & TIME

Tuesday, December 3, 2019
8:00am - 3:00pm

Lunch is NOT provided

Pre-registration is required for all participants
Register online at tmcsea.org
Registration Deadline: Tuesday, November 26, 2019

Tazewell-Mason Counties Special Education Association is an Illinois State Board of Education Approved Professional Development Provider and Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation Continuing Education Sponsor.
6 Professional Development hours and 6 Continuing Education Units will be issued for this inservice presentation.