

TRI-COUNTY PROGRAM

CHANGING LIVES, SAVING LIVES.

THAT'S CHILDREN'S HOME.
THAT'S WHAT WE DO.

ABOUT

This program is an intensive, home-based program for youth ages 3-20 years old with emotional and behavioral challenges in Peoria, Tazewell and Woodford counties.

Services are aimed at the reduction of emotional distress, improvement of interpersonal relationships and improved functioning at home, school and in the community. These goals are addressed through assessment and diagnosis, individual, group and family therapy, case management, close consultation with other providers and psychiatric services, as appropriate.

PROGRAM REFERRAL PROCESS

The parent or guardian of a youth in the tri-county area may call to initiate services. Other sources, such as therapists, caseworkers, physicians and school personnel often help to facilitate this referral.
